

Escape to warmer weather...and visit 3 of the most famous Barrier Islands on Georgia's coast!

May 9-11, 2017

ISLAND GETAWAYS

WOW...we are going to visit 3 islands off the GA/SC coast!

Jekyll Island: The southernmost island of the Golden Isles, Jekyll Island was purchased in 1886 by a group of wealthy families as a private retreat. By 1900, the Jekyll Island Club membership included the Rockefellers, Morgans, Cranes and Goulds and represented over one-sixth of the world's wealth. We will spend 2 nights at the historic and iconic Jekyll Island Club Hotel.

Cumberland Island: Cumberland Island National Seashore is the largest and southernmost barrier island in Georgia offering visitors over 17 miles of secluded, white, sandy beaches. Take the short ferry ride out to this unspoiled island and you'll feel you have stepped back in time. We will catch a ferry and enjoy a walking tour of the island.

Daufuskie Island: Daufuskie Island offers a glimpse of what other sea islands were like before bridges and causeways opened them to development. Most native residents of Daufuskie Island are descendants of freed slaves, who have made their living oystering and fishing for decades. The subject of Pat Conroy's novel, The Water Is Wide, Daufuskie Island has a timeless quality and is still accessible only by boat. We will enjoy a ferry ride and guided tour of this intriguing island.

Includes 2 nights accommodations, 2 breakfasts, 1 lunch, 1 dinner, 2 roundtrip ferry rides, guided tours of Cumberland Island and Daufuskie Island...a new tour not to be missed! Moderate walking required.
