DAY 2 OF OUR TOUR—

"BINGO, THE WINNING MUSICAL" THE BARN

Die-hard bingo players Vern, Honey, and Patsy will stop at nothing to make their weekly bingo games. These best friends brave a terrible storm in order to make it to the annual celebration of the birth of bingo. In between the number calling, strange rituals, and fierce competitions, love blossoms and long lost friends reunite. These lovable characters spring to life with a smart script filled with humor and "hummable" music.

A LITTLE INFORMATION ABOUT THE BARN DINNER THEATRE

Conceived in the early 60's, The Barn Dinner Theatre in Greensboro was the second location of what eventually became 27 in the chain during its heyday. The shows were cast in New York, then the cast would travel from one Barn Dinner Theatre to the next performing each show, as far as Texas & New Mexico. To accommodate the actors, each theatre had, as they still do in this theatre, living quarters upstairs. These included kitchens, showers, and bedrooms. Occasionally cast members still reside on this property during the run of a show. The casts in the early days actually waited on the tables, then rushed to get ready for the show. Their staff & casts today are grateful this is not still the case!

As the decades went by, many of the locations were closed or sold off. Today this location in Greensboro is the only remaining property from the original chain. They are very proud to be the oldest continually-operating dinner theatre in America!
