"NUNSENSE" THE BARN DINNER THEATRE

Nunsense follows the crazy antics of five nuns from the Little Sisters of Hoboken convent. When their cook accidentally serves up some tainted soup, 52 of the sisters are poisoned and die, leaving only five living nuns who were not at home the day of the toxic meal. When the convent's first in charge, Reverend Mother Regina, splurges on a plasma TV, the sisters find themselves strapped for cash, as they still have four dead nuns to bury (whose bodies are being stored in the kitchen freezer!). The nuns decide to put on a benefit performance of the musical Grease in order to raise the rest of the money before the health department discovers their secret.

A LITTLE INFORMATION ABOUT THE BARN DINNER THEATRE

Conceived in the early 60's, The Barn Dinner Theatre in Greensboro was the second location of what eventually became 27 in the chain during its heyday. The shows were cast in New York, then the cast would travel from one Barn Dinner Theatre to the next performing each show, as far as Texas & New Mexico. To accommodate the actors, each theatre had, as they still do in this theatre, living quarters upstairs. These included kitchens, showers, and bedrooms. Occasionally cast members still reside on this property during the run of a show. The casts in the early days actually waited on the tables, then rushed to get ready for the show. Their staff & casts today are grateful this is not still the case! As the decades went by, many of the locations were closed or sold off. Today this location in Greensboro is the only remaining property from the original chain. They are very proud to be the oldest continually operating dinner theatre in America!

DAY 2 OF OUR TOUR

OLD SALEM and MESDA

Too far for a one day tour, but perfect for the 2nd day of a 2 day 'combo' tour!

Old Salem is nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains and is a unique blend of history, culture and charm. It was founded in 1766 as a Moravian congregation town and backcountry trading center. It has survived to become one of America's most authentic and well-documented colonial sites. Founded by the Moravians—a Protestant religious group that first organized in what is now known as the Czech Republic in the 15th century, the Moravians were active missionaries who also established a settlement in Bethlehem, PA.

In addition to admission to Old Salem, we will include a tour of the Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts. Our guided tour of the MESDA will take us through several period rooms, as it is a museum designed to showcase the decorative arts of the South from the 1670's through the early nineteenth century.

You will feel like you have stepped back in time as we enjoy our day at Old Salem and MESDA. Don't miss Winkler's Bakery where a sweet treat will be waiting for you...before we return home in the late afternoon.
